Community Supported Agriculture

Harmony Farm, on Broadlea Road in Goshen, NY, is a 9 acre farm growing vegetables through organic principles and practices.

We invite you to experience the abundance of the farm!

Community Supported Agriculture, referred to as a CSA, is a working connection between you and a local farmer.

Members receive fresh, locally grown organic vegetables and the farm receives operating income to start the season.

Distribution begins with spring greens and onions in early June and finishes with a variety of Fall vegetables in mid-November.

At height of season,
CSA Shares contain 9 to 11 different vegetables each week.

A wide variety of organic vegetables
for 22 weeks!

CSA Share: $ 500
